HOLE NAMES

As you play the golf course, each hole is named for a species that the Columbus Zoo and Aquarium, The Wilds, or Safari Golf is working to save. Through wildlife conservation grants worldwide and working with many partners, we are doing our part to accomplish our vision: The sustainable coexistence of all living things. Find out more about the animals the holes were named after, our conservation efforts, and how you can help at http://safarigc.com/conservation.
